

JOHN M. MAHONEY, CIC, ARM

Senior Vice President
Senior Living and Long-Term Care

John Mahoney proudly serves as Senior Vice President for USI's Senior Living and Long-Term Care Practice. John collaborates with USI's National Practice team to serve the needs of Senior Living and Long-Term Care. John has built a business based on solid client relationships and a technical, risk management based approach to resolving his clients insurance needs. John currently insures a diverse group of clients in Connecticut, New York and New Jersey that includes municipalities, skilled nursing facilities, and hospitals.

John built a dedicated, multi-disciplinary team that specializes in Senior Living and Long-Term Care facilities. John and his team work to support clients with strategies on how to deal with HUD requirements, building captives, trusts and self-insured programs and navigate through hard and soft insurance market conditions.

He was also actively involved in saving lives during the Cuban boat lift in the early eighties and the rescue of 1000 American medical students from a corrupt government in Grenada in 1983. John was awarded, among others, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Humanitarian Service Medal, and the Coast Guard Commendation Medal for outstanding achievement.

John is a native of Waterford, Connecticut and a 1982 graduate of the United States Coast Guard Academy. As an Officer in the U.S. Coast Guard, John participated in our Country's war on illegal drugs by serving as Boarding and Arresting officer during several large at-sea vessel seizures.

John is involved in the community and is an active member of the Connecticut Association of Health Care Facilities, American Health Care Association, and the New York Government Finance Officers Association.
